

Ichingo Chobe River Lodge by Mantis... Where Water, Wildlife and Warmth Meet

Ichingo Chobe River Lodge is a secluded, riverfront tented 3.5 star safari lodge on Impalila Island, offering a personalized safari experience, rooted in authenticity, community, and connection. Nestled at the meeting point of the Chobe and Zambezi Rivers, Ichingo Chobe River Lodge is a secluded, water-based safari lodge set on the Namibian side of Impalila Island near Chobe/Kasane. Surrounded by wild riverbanks, gentle rapids, and ancient trees, Ichingo offers a rare sense of privacy and exclusivity in one of Africa's most iconic safari regions. With just eight spacious Meru-style tents and personalized service, the lodge is designed to feel like a home away from home, relaxed, intimate, and close to nature.

Perfect for travelers seeking a quieter, more immersive experience of the Chobe River, away from the busier tourism hubs. It's ideal for keen anglers, birders, families, and adventurers who want to explore the river and surrounding waterways at their own pace.

Each tent includes a private guide and tender boat, offering a tailor-made experience for every guest. Whether you're looking to catch a tigerfish, photograph rare kingfishers, or simply enjoy the stillness of the river, Ichingo offers flexibility, freedom, and personal attention in equal measure. It's the land-based offering in the Zambezi Queen Collection by Mantis, providing a unique riverside experience that beautifully complements its houseboat counterparts.
